Theresa,

Thank you for sending the complaint and answer. Please let me know what you find out about the stipulation or other form of protective order that would cover Pacific Northwest Software's document production.

I have conferred with Mr. Taves and he is working to retrieve the responsive documents. We should be able to produce them by October 18 or just shortly thereafter. Please confirm that you will be striking the deposition set for October 18.

Thanks,

Arissa

Arissa-

Thank you for calling. I've attached the complaint and answer in this matter. I read the protective order after we spoke and, for reasons that are not clear to me, it does not specifically call out production by third parties. We have previously received a stipulation from opposing counsel to treat the produced materials as confidential, so I am confident that we could do the same here.

I also will check to see if the Court has a protective order.

Please call if you have additional questions.

Theresa
